DAY

NOVENA

Origin

In an apparition of Our Lady of Pompeii, which occurred in 1884 at Naples, in the house of Commander Agrelli, the heavenly Mother deigned to make known the manner in which she desires to be invoked. For thirteen months Fortuna Agrelli, the daughter of the Commander, had endured dreadful sufferings and torturous cramps. The most celebrated physicians had given up.

On February 16, 1884, the afflicted girl and her relatives commenced a novena of Rosaries. The Queen of the Holy Rosary favoured her with an apparition on March 3rd. Mary, sitting upon a high throne, surrounded by luminous figures, held the divine Child on her lap, and in her hand a Rosary. The Virgin Mother and the Holy Infant were clad in gold embroidered garments. They were accompanied by Saint Dominic and Saint Catherine of Siena. The throne was profusely decorated with flowers; the beauty of Our Lady was marvellous.

Mary looked upon the sufferer with maternal tenderness and the patient saluted her with the words: "Queen of the Holy Rosary, be gracious to me; restore me to health! I have already prayed to thee in a novena O Mary, but have not yet experienced thy aid. I am so anxious to be cured!"

"Child", responded the Blessed Virgin, "thou hast invoked me by various titles and hast always obtained favours from me. Now, since thou hast called me by that title so pleasing to me, 'Queen of the Holy Rosary', I can no longer refuse the favour thou dost petition; for this name is most precious and dear to me. Make three novenas, and thou shalt obtain all".

Once more the Queen of the Holy Rosary appeared to her and said: "Whoever desires to obtain favours from me should make three novenas of the prayers of the Rosary, and three novenas in thanksgiving".

This miracle of the Rosary made a very deep impression on Pope Leo XIII, and greatly contributed to the fact that in so many circular letters, he urged all Christians to love the Rosary and say it fervently.

Method

The 54 Day Rosary Novena consists of five decades of the Rosary each day for 27 days in petition; then immediately five decades each day for 27 days in thanksgiving, whether or not the request has been granted.

The meditations vary from day to day. On the first day meditate on the Joyful Mysteries; on the second day the Sorrowful Mysteries; on the third day the Glorious Mysteries and on the fourth day the Luminous Mysteries; and so on throughout the 54 days.

Follow the format of the prayers for each of the mysteries as outlined in the guide below. This is an arduous novena but it is a novena of love. If you are sincere, you will not find it difficult to obtain your request.

Should you not obtain the favour you seek, be assured that the Rosary Queen, who knows what each one stands most in need of, has heard your prayer. You will not have prayed in vain. No prayer ever went unheard and Our Blessed Lady has never been known to fail.

Look upon each Hail Mary as a rare and beautiful rose which you lay at Mary's feet. These spiritual roses, bound in a wreath with Spiritual Communions, will be a most pleasing and acceptable gift to her and will bring down upon you special graces.

Hail Holy Queen^{iv}

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, hail our life, our sweetness and our hope! To thee do we cry poor banished children of Eve; to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, O most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus; O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: O God, whose only-begotten Son, by His life, death and resurrection has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech you, that meditating on these mysteries of the most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may both imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel^v

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The Memorare^{vi}

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known, that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petition, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

1 x The Concluding Prayers for all the Mysteries

The Concluding Prayers for all the Mysteries

The following prayers are said after all the five mysteries for any category are completed. There are four overarching categories (Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious and Luminous) and five underlying mysteries per category. So take the Joyful Mysteries as an example: Once you have completed The Annunciation, The Visitation, The Birth of Jesus, The Presentation and Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple, then you pray these concluding prayers. They are not said after each underlying mystery (meaning five times per Rosary), only once at the end of the five. So you end up saying them once a day. Please note that the concluding prayers are the same for any category (Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious and Luminous).

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, really present in the most Holy Sacrament of the altar, since I cannot now receive you under the Sacramental Veil, I beseech you, with a heart full of love and longing, to come spiritually into my soul through the immaculate heart of Your most Holy Mother, and abide with me forever.

In the 27 days of petition pray: Sweet Mother Mary, I offer you this Spiritual Communion to bind my bouquets in a wreath to place upon your brow. O my Mother! Look with favour upon my gift, and in your love obtain for me (specify request here).

In the 27 days of thanksgiving pray: Sweet Mother Mary, I offer you this Spiritual Communion to bind my bouquets in a wreath to place upon your brow in thanksgiving for (specify request here).

End Notes

ⁱ This prayer was not in any original form of the Rosary. Neither in its original scripting to Saint Dominic in 1214 or its official standardisation and approval by Pope Pius V in the 16th century. However, most Catholics now add it after each Glory Be, as this was requested by the Blessed Virgin Mary in her apparition at Fatima. There are many English variations to this prayer, with the most common difference being the position of the word “in” to before or after the word “most”. Not much difference here, so feel free to use whatever version you are accustomed to.

ⁱⁱ When reciting the Hail Mary, it is important to remember that the first section is in fact straight out of the Holy Bible. “Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee” is the Archangel Gabriel’s greeting to Mary – Luke 1:28. The second sentence “Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb” is also from the Holy Bible, when Mary’s cousin Elizabeth greets her during the visitation – Luke 1:42. The two most common mispronunciations are the word “among” and the non-pause after the word “womb”. The correct pronunciation is “among” and not “amongst”. Almost every version of the Holy Bible contains the word among, except for the Darby Bible Translation. Section 2676 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church is very clear that the word is among and not amongst. The second common mistake is not pausing after the word womb. This implies that Mary’s womb is called Jesus, rather than the intended meaning, which is the fruit of Mary’s womb is Jesus. It’s nice to say the Hail Mary but it’s even better to correctly reflect on the words.

ⁱⁱⁱ The Apostles’ Creed contains 12 articles of faith (an obvious link to the Twelve Apostles, which it is named after). I thought it would be helpful to divide the Creed into the respective articles, as outlined in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. This version is not to be confused with the multitude of variations, which the traditional Apostles’ Creed has.

^{iv} When reading the first sentence, most people confuse what they are “hailing”. You are not hailing your life, your sweetness and your hope, those components are actually in reference to our Mother Mary. Although the prayer is read with the second “hail” flowing directly to the phrase “our life”, its true meaning is much better understood if the second “hail” was completely removed. Reread the first sentence without the second “hail”. Please note that the second “hail” must be said but it’s important to understand that the Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy is the one who is in fact our life, our sweetness and our hope, we are not “hailing” those three things.

^v This is a very powerful prayer written by Pope Leo XIII. However, this is what is referred to as the short version of this particular prayer. The longer version is much more extensive. Pope Leo XIII fainted in a meeting of Cardinals and saw a vision of demons being released from hell, to try and deceive the Holy Catholic Church. He wrote this prayer to combat that vision and enacted that it should be recited at the end of every Low Mass from 1886. This practice continued for 78 years, until it was suppressed in 1964. This version is taken from the official Catholic website. An alternative version, which I’m used to, is the following: “Holy Michael, Archangel, defend us in the day of battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the power of God, thrust down to hell Satan and all other evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.” Feel free to use either version, or a version you’re familiar with.

^{vi} This prayer derives its name from its first word in Latin “Memorare”, which when translated means Remember. It was popularised in the 17th century by Father Claude Bernard, who claims he learnt it from his father. It is frequently misattributed to the 12th century Cistercian monk Saint Bernard of Clairvaux. However, its true origins lie in a much longer 15th century prayer (Ad sanctitatis tuae pedes, dulcissima Virgo Maria), where it makes its first appearance.

^{vii} It is important to note that there is no Biblical evidence that Jesus first appeared to the Virgin Mary. On the contrary, the Biblical evidence stipulates that Jesus first appeared to Mary Magdalene (Mark 9:16). The only reason the mystery is worded in such a way is because many saints and blessed John Paul II all suggest that Jesus would have certainly appeared to the Virgin Mary first, out of respect and love for His mother. It is argued that the Bible’s silence on the matter should be taken to indicate the obviousness of this fact, rather than its falsehood. To be clear, the Catechism of the Catholic Church holds that the first appearance was in fact to Mary Magdalene and not to the Virgin Mary. The suggestion by blessed John Paul II is not dogmatic in nature and is only written to highlight what he believes to be an obvious point but in no way certifies it as a mandatory article of faith.
